Get connected to MyHBC ChurchCenter and help build our online church directory

Back in the spring, we quietly retired our former church database and transferred the database into a system called Planning Center. This new system includes the ChurchCenter app, which helps people connect with our church. ChurchCenter also enables you to do the following:

- View church service times, directions, and basic info
- Update your contact information
- Upload a photo of yourself from your phone
- Give to your church
- View your giving history
- Register and pay for church events
- Browse Sunday School classes
- Connect with class & group members
- Download a directory (if you are a member of a group)

ChurchCenter has been active for a few months, but we're now rolling it out in a big way to our whole church family. Would you download the app, update your information, and upload a photo? Doing so will help people connect with you, recognize you, and help you do the same with others.

Connecting with ChurchCenter is easy and doesn't require a password. Here's what to do:

- Download the ChurchCenter app and select Hurstbourne Baptist as your church, or point your web browser to myhbc.churchcenter.com/login.
- Enter your mobile number or select the email option and enter your email.
- Enter the code ChurchCenter sends to your phone or email.
- Click "Continue" to access your profile, or select the option to create a new profile.

To see your profile, tap the picture in the upper right-hand corner. You should then be able to update your info and photo with the app. (If you use a web browser to reach ChurchCenter, you will be able to update your info but not your photo. Email your name and photo to reception@hurstbournebc.org, and we'll upload it for you.)

To see the online church directory, tap the picture in the upper right-hand corner and select "My Groups." Then pick your Sunday School class, and scroll down to "Resources." You should see a resource named MyHBC Directory. Click it to view or download a PDF directory of our current active members and attenders. We'll update this directory frequently.

If you have any questions, please reach out to Hannah or Pastor Jeff in the church office. Thanks for helping our church become better connected!

Testimonials: Who's Her ONE?

I called three times about my shattered trash totes. "They will deliver your new trash totes in two weeks-on Monday, your normal trash pickup day." Two weeks later, Monday came. Monday went. No new trash totes. Grrrr.

I called again, speaking to two more people, including a supervisor. "I'm sorry Ma'am. I don't know what happened." They will deliver next week-on Monday, your normal trash pickup day. One week later, Monday came. Monday went. No new trash totes. Grrrrrrrrrrrr.

A week and a half later, on Wednesday, our dog was barking like a maniac. "WHAT in the WORLD is your PROBLEM?!"

I looked out the window to find a young man delivering my new trash totes. In my elation, I ran outside, in the rain, in my pajamas, to convey my sincere appreciation to him. I wanted to give him a big hug.

God said to me, "Ask him about his salvation." God reminded me that Satan doesn't retreat and I am NOT doing anyone any favors when I don't tell them about Jesus and His free offer of salvation. I was a preacher's daughter, and for 40 years I didn't really understand that it is all about what Jesus did for me. One day, 16 years ago, a friend said to me, "It's all about Jesus." I pondered that. Finally I understood and could now share it with Dillan.

I asked him, "If you died today, do you know whether or not you would go to Heaven?" He thought a moment and replied, "You know Ma'am, I really don't. My girlfriend goes to church, and my mom used to, but I don't really know." I said to him, "But you CAN know!! You can KNOW that if you died today you would go to Heaven. I explained, "Everyone has eternal life-it's just a matter of where it will be- in Heaven with God or in Hell." I explained to him that being good won't get him to Heaven and being bad won't send him to Hell.

I told him I try really hard to be good, but I sin every day. Being a Christian is about trusting that Jesus paid for our sin on the cross and we trust in what He did for us and we accept him as our Savior and make Him the Lord of our lives. It's not about what we do. It's about accepting His free gift.

I asked him, "Dillan, would you like to pray right now and ask Jesus to come into your heart and be the Lord of your life?" He said, "Yes I would." I took his hands and I said, "You repeat after me, 'Dear Lord...'" He prayed the prayer of salvation. I asked him if he meant it. He said he did.

I asked him if he had a Bible. He said he did, but he didn't know the version. He waited, in the rain, for me to run into the house to get a Bible. I showed him where to start reading. He sincerely thanked me.

I know that was a Divine appointment. God had those trash totes delivered on His timetable---and Dillan's.
